OPENING SOON: Midtown Grill – The American show grill!

“Best steaks in town” - tender giant steaks, fresh seafood and fish, refined salads and dressings, crazy cocktails / “fun, good wines, good food” / open show kitchen.

Brussels, 2007 The Brussels Marriott hotel is undergoing a complete renovation and re-branding of their restaurant called “Brasserie Le Sauvoir”. The new concept is called “Midtown Grill” and is scheduled to open on the 16th of April, 2007. It will be an American version of a grill restaurant – featuring an open show kitchen.

“The top address in the city for the greatest steaks, chops and seafood” – that is the ambitious culinary slogan of the Midtown Grill. Chef Arnaud Pintor sets the American-style cuisine when it comes to appetizers, for example, “Caesar Salad” (Romaine lettuce with parmesan and croutons) but also new generation food as: Downtown Dublin Bay prawns martini (Dublin Bay prawns with chunky tomato-avocado salsa and zucchini caviar served in a martini glass). The starter prices are between 9.00 and 18.00 euros.

To follow, our Chef Arnaud Pintor proposes you various choices of grilled meat and fish. You will find the traditional Filet Mignon, Rib eye steak, Rump steak as well as more unusual ones like the 700gr Rib eye steak and the 400gr Eye bone steak. The Midtown Grill serves not only great steaks but also Veal Chops, Pork Chops, Free Range Chicken, Rack of Lamb, Tuna Steak, Salmon Steak, and Lobster.

The main course prices are between 16.00 and 50.00 euros. The guests can have their steak prepared in five different categories ranging from rare, medium to well-done.

The Midtown Grill team ensures a personalised and pleasant service. A noble American ambience characterises the generous and open-spaced room, with an entrance and window front facing Rue Paul Deveaux, one of the cosy streets facing the Stock Exchange (“La Bourse”). On the other side, the Midtown Grill opens into the lobby of
